Long Handicap: Royal Claret 10 - 0

ATR VERDICT: DIABLO DE ROUHET has improved considerably since joining Nicky Henderson, winning at Perth by a wide margin before a solid effort over 3m at Bangor, and the slight drop in distance on this occasion appears to be in his favour. Carrick Roads won his latest hurdles start at Bangor in April and appeals as making up into a better chaser, while Westend Story's sole chase effort at Exeter last season is a particularly strong piece of form having finished behind two subsequent Cheltenham Festival winners.

Top Tip: DIABLO DE ROUHET (2)

ATR VERDICT: Red Force One looked a useful prospect when shaping nicely on his hurdles debut in the Adonis, but was too keen when blotting his copybook in a winnable race at Stratford subsequently and will have to show he can settle better. That opens the door for NOTRE PARI, who caught the eye when third at Warwick on his Rules debut, while the only horse that finished ahead of the Jeremy gelding in his sole point joined the stable for 270,000 pounds and is held in the highest regard. Eva's Diva and Northofthewall are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: MCNAMARAS BAND showed a fair amount of promise in his three maiden hurdle outings last season, all coming at Chepstow, and an opening mark of 128, combined with the step up in trip, make him appeal considerably. Final Choice won nicely over C&D 12 days ago and must enter calculations under a 7lb penalty, while Tea Time Fred completes the shortlist chasing his fourth win in a row.

ATR VERDICT: Elkstone is sure to be popular having built on a useful effort at Uttoxeter to romp to a 12-length Huntingdon victory. He has won over this trip in the past, but now has a career-high mark to overcome now following an 11lb rise so is passed over in favour of TREACKLE TART. Charlie Longsdon's mare beat a useful cast at Warwick on her first outing of the autumn and is capable of defying a 6lb hike. Marienstar will appreciate the return to the handicap ranks, with C&D winner Hepijeu another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: ZANE DADDY didn't appear to be in love with the soft ground on his debut for Mark Johnston at Beverley last month and this switch to the all-weather could unlock plenty of improvement from the son of Scat Daddy. Debbonair has been running well and the booking of Andrea Atzeni has to be noted, while others to consider include Granite City Doc and Kilbaha Lady.

ATR VERDICT: LONG ARM was putting in his best work in the closing stages when making a winning debut over the extended 1m1f at Gowran and promises to be suited by this stiffer test on his handicap bow. The main danger may be Moktamel, who is fitted with a first-time visor after picking up minor money over C&D and appears a little bit more trustworthy than Eminence, who has been unplaced when sent off favourite here the last twice.

Top Tip: LONG ARM (7)

Watch out for: MOKTAMEL (12)
