ATR VERDICT: SALAYEL only found the well-handicapped Sir Busker too good in the Silver Royal Hunt Cup two starts ago, off just 3lb lower, and she was not beaten far when third in a Listed race last time. The daughter of Bated Breath will be hard to beat if reproducing either of those performances today. Indie Angel is a consistent filly who should not be far away, while One Small Step is the pick of the remaining pair.

ATR VERDICT: LADY NECTAR was a tidy winner over this trip at Catterick last time and that form is working out well (runner-up placed and third successful since). A 7lb rise will make life tougher, but she's clearly in great nick and might be able to follow up. Burtonwood brings winning C&D form to the table and warrants respect on the back of a nose defeat over 5f at Beverley, while Redzone and Gleaming Arch are others to note in a competitive handicap.

Top Tip: LADY NECTAR (9)

ATR VERDICT: Course winner AIR OF YORK has been in good form since the restart and wasn't beaten far when looking for back-to-back victories last time. His jockey removes a valuable 7lb and he's likely to be right there at the business end once again. Zest Of Zambia was second to the selection on his penultimate outing and is respected, while Valletta Sunset is interesting on his handicap debut following a promising third at Leicester.

ATR VERDICT: Burristo posted his best effort yet when a staying-on fourth over 6f at Lingfield last time and he merits consideration stepping back up in trip on his nursery debut, but preference is for BALAVAD. Jamie Osborne's colt has posted a number of solid efforts in defeat, including when fourth in a competitive handicap at Glorious Goodwood latest, and he looks capable of winning a race of this magnitude off a mark of 66. Moiella shouldn't be too far away either.

ATR VERDICT: VITARE was a useful second here over 6f earlier this summer and the consistent performer is interesting now dropped back to 5f. He could only manage third when sent off favourite at Ripon last time, but can make his experience count now to see off Royal Appointment, who has finished second on both outings so far and is tried in first-time cheekpieces. Ice Station Zebra is a half-sister to a Listed winner and is also of note on debut.

ATR VERDICT: ITKAANN improved with each start as a juvenile and ran out an impressive winner of his maiden at Kempton in December. An opening mark of 83 appears workable for Owen Burrows' colt, who is capable of making a winning return to action. Cloud Drift has stepped forward with each run this season and scored at Leicester on his latest outing, while Anglo Saxson's recent Yarmouth victory puts him in contention.

ATR VERDICT: Boundless Power beat plenty of these when second past the post over C&D a couple of weeks ago but he was subsequently disqualified for drawing the incorrect weight. The son of Slade Power should go well once again but preference is for MUDAWY, who was fourth on that occasion. The son of Dark Angel was making his debut and was slowly away, but he caught the eye when finishing fast. With that experience now under his belt, the three-year-old could be very hard to beat this afternoon. Others to note are Call Of The Jungle, King Of Stars, I Am Thunder and Taggalo.

ATR VERDICT: AWESOMEDUDE completed the hat-trick at Yarmouth on his latest start, following a pair of victories on the all-weather, and the booking of Cieren Fallon will aid his cause with him taking off a valuable 3lb. The Lords Walk was running consistently well before the break and can enter the reckoning on his first start since last September, while Carp Kid and Jack D'Or appeal most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: NOMADIC EMPIRE boasts valuable experience and sets a decent standard based on his two runs at York to date. The form of his most recent second received a boost earlier in the week, when the winner of that contest came out and scored again at Beverley, and David O'Meara's colt might have had a valid excuse for defeat having lost a shoe during the race. Dewey Road and High Security are both bred to be sharp individuals and the pair make a fair amount of appeal on their debuts.
